

Problem of the Week Grade 11 and 12

A Problem For The Ages

A four-digit number which is a perfect square is created by writing Jennifer's age in years followed by John's age in years. Similarly, in 31 years, their ages in the same order will again form a four-digit perfect square.

How old are Jennifer and John today?

