

Problem of the Week

Problem E

All the Children

My family has four children, each with a different age. The product of their ages is 17 280. The sum of the ages of the three oldest children is 40 and the sum of the ages of the three youngest children is 32.

Determine all possibilities for the ages of the four children.

