

Problem of the Week

Problem C

The Great Box Mixup

Rachel has 100 candies that she is placing in small boxes for a party game. She has decided that each box must contain at least one candy and no two boxes can contain the same number of candies. As well, no box can go inside any other box. Determine the maximum number of boxes Rachel can use for her candies.

